DECATUR, ILLINOIS.
Thursday, Evening May 20.

The new St. Louis consolidation, the Globe-Democrat, made its first appearance this morning.

It is rumored President Fallows, of Bloomington Wesleyan University, will withdraw from the Methodist and join the Reformed Episcopal Church.

A REMARKABLE theory, and yet not entirely new, is promulgated by Dr. Carpenter, an eminent English savant. He has found that the ocean, like the blood in the animal system, circulates regularly. The poles supply the place of a heart, and the motive power is the action of heat and cold. The intensely cold water of the Arctic and Antarctic regions is continually moving toward the equator, the warmer water from which latitude flows northward and southward. A Russian named Leus held to the same theory half a century ago, a fact of which Dr. Carpenter does not seem to be aware.

A NEW plan has been introduced into the constitutional convention of Missouri to relieve the dockets of the Supreme Court. It is proposed that when dockets have three hundred or more cases on them which have not been reached for determination for two years, the Legislature shall have power to authorize the Governor to appoint a commission of three men having the qualifications of Judges of the Supreme Court, to whom shall be assigned the cases referred to. It is also proposed that whenever the Legislature finds it necessary, it shall have power to create inferior appellate courts.

The editor of Harper's Weekly, Mr. George William Curtis, remarks—and his words deserve attention—that "the first thing that is observable is the fact of a very general alarm at the prospect of a Democratic victory in 1876. It springs from the perception that, while the Democratic party insists upon conciliation, it only aims to consolidate the late disaffected class in the Southern States; that while it preaches the golden rule and brotherly love, it sees the negro hunted and harried without protest, and that it chiefly honors those who were known during the war as Copperheads or Confederates."

POLICE NEWS.

Patrick O'Shea was hauled to the calaboose yesterday afternoon, and after a night's repose, he was taken into "Square Hughes" court this morning, where he pleaded guilty to the charge of intoxication. The usual fine of $3 and costs was assessed, and this amount was secured by an order on the Illinois Midland Railway Company.

Amos Neight plead guilty to the same charge, and was likewise fined $3 and costs. He gave ample security for the amount, and was allowed to go free.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Among the guests registered at the St. Nicholas Hotel yesterday are the following: Wm. E. Wilson, Mattoon; John McDevitt, St. Louis; J. T. Fosket, Peoria; R. E. Andrews, Macon; C. H. Clevley, Argenta; Hugh McDonald, Louisville; J. A. Gallagher, Cincinnati; C. B. Woodruff, Chicago; E. S. Webb, Philadelphia; J. F. Lawson, Indianapolis; S. P. Martin, Madison, Wisconsin; Frank Bishop, Lexington; D. R. Sutter, do.; S. A. Rice, Louisiana; C. H. Elliott, city; W. H. Cook, St. Louis; J. Kumer, Richmond; Z. Boughn, Warrensburg; Jas. Malloy, Monticello; R. P. Stuckel, do.; L. W. Newman, Cincinnati; R. J. Anderson, St. Louis; C. L. Williams, Catillon; L. M. Devon, Freeport; James Bartle, Tuscola.

CHICAGO, May 19.—The distillery men who were brought before the U. S. Commissioner here, on a criminal charge of defrauding the Government, were this morning held in bonds of $5,000 to await the action of the grand jury.

CINCINNATI, May 19.—In the Catholic Benevolent Society's Convention the new constitution has been adopted, and societies are instructed to acknowledge, in their next credentials, their acceptance of the constitution as a fundamental law. Resolutions were passed denouncing Bismarck, and his war against the church in Prussia, and expressing sympathy for the Pope.

LEXINGTON, KY., May 19.—The funeral of Gen. John C. Breckinridge occurred today and was attended by an immense throng anxious to pay the last honors to the memory of the great and good man.

LONDON, May 19.—The sides of the wrecked steamship Schiller have fallen in, carrying and the specie and best part of the cargo, and it is said a number of the bodies. Blasting operations will be commenced as soon as practicable. A dispatch from Lawrenson, Cornwall, says a terrible conflagration is raging in that town.

BEECHER-TILTON.

Opening of Judge Porter's Argument for the Defense.

A SCATHING DENUNCIATION OF T. T.

Mrs. Lincoln Adjudged Insane

INDIANS AT WASHINGTON.

Their Interview with the President.

NEW YORK, May 19.—In the Beecher-Tilton trial, this morning, Porter began summing up for the defense. He said:

Gentlemen of the Jury: You have been for five months in the service of Theodore Tilton, under the mandates of a power which you were bound to obey. My client has, since the beginning of this suit, dealt in Scripture principles—when they struck him on one cheek he turned to the other. In the beginning, they might have been struck with the general air of untruthfulness which permeated the case, and counsel thought that if they had then been called upon to deliver their verdict, there could have been but little doubt what the verdict would have been.

On the one hand they had Tilton, Moulton, Jayne, Woodhull, Claflin and Joe Richards starting up daily to strike his sister in the back, and Ben. Butler, who are sponsors of the accusation. These are the champions of Christian purity and morality; the originators, publishers and advisers in this matter. We had in favor of the defendant the jury of the vicinage, the wife, the children and the grand-children who found shelter beneath his roof, and the three thousand worshippers of Plymouth Church. Even the chastening hearts of young children loved his name, and would be living to bless his memory when you and I will be no more. We have with us the almost unanimous and enthusiastic support of his professional brethren, and the sympathy of enlightened Christendom. These trusted and loved the defendant, while they abhorred and loathed the names of Tilton and Moulton.

The speaker said the great obstacle to the answer was the defendant's answer of his innocence and the oath of an honest man. Another was the unblemished character of defendant and purity of both himself and wife, and Tilton and Moulton for four years, by their words and acts, falsified such an accusation in writing and otherwise. Tilton cohabited and slept with the lady accused, and remained four years in family relations with the alleged adulteress Moulton and Tilton admitted of being in open hostility to defendant. An old maxim of law provides that witnesses be weighed in the balance. On one side of the scales is found Beecher and his wife, and Tilton and Moulton on the other, with the record of their lives, we are apt to believe in the truth of a statement and not the multitude of witnesses. A man three score years of age, a veteran Christian and minister, who from youth had dedicated himself to God and to religion, going from cabin to cabin preaching—if he was true to his wife then, should it be believed that he had fallen now.

The speaker spoke of Mrs. Tilton and her intellectual capacity. They would have it believed that Beecher could have amours in open day and openly debauch the mother of a family—that such intrigues could have been carried on a year and a half, and not been seen or heard of until Mrs. Tilton first told of it, and it was to Tilton and Beecher, the latter being the last man on earth that could have been guilty, spoke of the impossibility of Beecher taking witnesses to his own house in the presence of servants. The speaker turned toward Moulton and Tilton, and said: What are such men for, unless for hunting down clergymen and to crucify women. The letters which passed in the confidence reposed in her friend and pastor have ruthlessly been brought before the public in a different light than intended.

Recess.

After recess Judge Porter resumed, quoting from one of Mrs. Tilton's letters, in which she breathed forth the fervor of admiration of her husband. The woman whom he had asked to have stoned as an adulteress, knelt to him as to God and loved him as she loved her Redeemer. This woman, while standing at the grave of her boy, they would have you believe, stood within nine months of the grave of her own honor. Mr. Porter quoted from Mrs. Tilton's letters to show her unselfishness. Counsel also quoted from a letter dated February 2d, 1878, in which she reproached herself with her shortcomings. The dastard to whom this letter was written furnished it to the papers for publication, for the purpose of blasting his wife and injuring Beecher.

Counsel then referred to gifts of books, etc., which were paraded by Judge Morris, and which he said would not be likely presents to be made by a libertine. Counsel read other letters for the purpose of showing the jury what passed between Mr. Beecher and Mr. Tilton at each visit, and said they only wanted offered the excuse of jealousy to the man who only wanted an opportunity for his infidelities. I deny, said the counsel, that in the history of the whole human race have we a similar case of a woman writing such letters to a "cuckold" husband. Counsel here quoted from a letter in which she asks her husband to love the Lord Jesus Christ, and bear patiently with her. The woman who wrote that letter to Theodore Tilton was not an adulteress, but she was faulty only in that she loved him too well.

Counsel also quoted from other letters to show that when Mrs. Tilton mentioned her sin, Tilton hastened to accuse Beecher of adultery, and that he (Tilton) was excessively jealous. In all these letters to this poor little woman there was nothing but glorification and adoration of Theodore Tilton. Why, you cannot open a letter of this little woman but there is something about Bowen, and you cannot have midnight meetings between Beecher and Moulton without a snow storm resonant with exclamations of Bowen's treachery. Beecher, in the course of his life, has written a few letters to Mrs. Tilton, and these are taken as evidence of adultery, though written at the instance of Tilton. A letter of Mrs. Tilton, dated January 13, 1870, to her husband, was also read, in which she mentioned the visit of Beecher to her house that day. Why, said counsel, should she write to her husband in a remote state needlessly, and mention the name of her paramour? This was after October 10, 1868, when Tilton alleged that Henry Ward Beecher debauched Elizabeth R. Tilton at his house, and after October, 1868, when they said he repeated the offense. Another letter of Mrs. Tilton's was quoted, referring to the troubles of her own making, and yet Tilton came on the stand and swore they were of Henry Ward Beecher's making.

Court here adjourned.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The Sioux Indians now here to negotiate with the government for the sale of the Black Hills in their reservation, called on the President to-day, accompanied by Assistant Secretary Cowan and Commissioner Smith. The President received them in his office, and after shaking hands with each one said he could not talk with them to-day on the subject of their visit, but he desired them to talk freely with the Secretary of the Interior and Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and that if any disagreements arose he would endeavor to right them. He desired them to accept statements of these officers, regardless of any statements made by them by others.

Lone Horn said he was glad to see his Great Father. He then said that he did own some of this great country, but the white people wanted to take it away from him. My great grandfather, my father and myself were chiefs. I am a chief. I never claimed I owned all the country before to-day, but now I claim it. I own it alone. These men you see (alluding to the Indians around him) are soldiers and will fight. At this juncture the President interrupted the chief by stating that he did not wish to have discussed the object of their visit to-day.

Spotted Tail said he was glad to see the Great Father, and wanted to have a great talk with him soon. Red Cloud said if the President did not appoint a day to see himself and other chiefs he would be very sorry. The Indians then withdrew. As Secretary Delano is absent from the city, and is not expected to return until Friday or Saturday, the Grand Council will not probably take place before Monday or Tuesday next.

NASHVILLE, TENN., May 19.—The colored people assembled in convention to-day, for the purpose of considering and adopting measures for emigration to some other State. After the introduction of numerous resolutions, the convention adjourned until to-morrow.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Jeremiah Hamilton, a colored speculator, on Wall street, died to-day. He is said to be the richest colored man in the United States, being worth nearly a million dollars. He was formerly a slave in the West Indies.

CHICAGO, May 19.—In the County Court the trial of the question of the insanity of Mrs. Lincoln, widow of Abraham Lincoln, came up to-day. The proceedings were based on a petition filed by Robert T. Lincoln, setting forth that his mother, Mary Lincoln, has property and effects not exceeding $75,000; that she is non compos mentis and unable to manage her estate, and praying for an issuance of an order for a warrant and venire to test her sanity. The petition was accompanied by a certificate of the family physician, Dr. Isham, to the effect that he had examined Mrs. Lincoln, and was of the opinion that she is insane and a fit subject for hospital treatment. Several witnesses testified to the eccentricities in the conduct of Mrs. Lincoln, which commenced with the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, and has become more marked as time progressed. She imagines that she hears voices in the wall, that strange beings beset her in the entries of her hotel; that she is the victim of poisoning plots, etc., and that her closets are full of unopened packages of goods that she has ordered sent to her room. After a short argument the case was given to the jury, who rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts elicited.

Mrs. Lincoln will be removed to the hospital at Batavia, Ill. Her relations and friends have delayed this step as long as was prudent, but finally agreed that nothing else would suffice. At the announcement of the verdict, Robert Lincoln took the hand of his mother affectionately, whereupon she exclaimed in a reproachful tone, "Oh, Robert, to think that my son would ever have done this!" There were very few spectators in the court.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The Tribune says: "Everybody knows what to expect when almost the first words uttered by Judge Porter were these:

"Men are apt to be bold of speech, when two stalwart champions like Tilton and Moulton make a joint assault upon a clergyman and a woman—the one forbidden by his profession to return evil for evil, the other weak, powerless, held as in the hollow of his hand by a man who has but to look up on her to subdue her by his will."

The last clause, referring to Mrs. Tilton, was delivered in a deep, deliberate voice, with scathing force, and as the words were uttered the speaker turned toward Mr. Tilton, who sat behind him, and shook his clenched hands in plaintiff's face with a look of scorn.

Tilton's face turned very red, but he looked the lawyer straight in the eyes, while his lips became pressed tight together as if with suppressed passion. Judge Porter continued at intervals to turn and denounce Tilton to his face, and more than once the latter, who was very busy making notes, dropped his pen nervously, and half turning in his chair faced the speaker with an angry expression.

Judge Porter, after contrasting the lives and characters of the plaintiff and defendant, hastily sketched the more salient events in the life of Mr. Beecher, and pronounced Mr. Tilton to be an adulterer and perjurer.

Describing the discussion of the paternity of the boy Ralph, Mr. Porter exclaimed with electric force and facing Mr. Tilton: "If there be a beast upon the earth capable of holding such conversations over his adulterous wife, he has lived too long upon the earth—it is time for him to die. What are such men for unless they have a mission in hunting down clergymen, crucifying women and committing perjury in courts of justice." Nothing that was said during the day, caused deeper feeling in the audience than this sentence, delivered with all the withering force that the orator could condense into his words.

Tilton faced it all with an iron will, but his cheeks glowed and the lines about his mouth were deep and hard. Denunciations of Moulton and several other persons were only less severe than those launched against Tilton, but as the persons who were denounced were not present, the effect was much less marked. The chief aim of Judge Porter's argument was to prove from the character of both Beecher and Mrs. Tilton, and from the tone and nature of Mrs. Tilton's letter to her husband, the great improbability that any adulterous intercourse had taken place between Mrs. Tilton and Mr. Beecher. Judge Porter says he will probably speak until Friday night, if his strength hold out. Evans has desired him to occupy the whole remainder of this week with his argument.

ST. LOUIS, May 19.—Supervisor Hawley filed information in the U. S. Circuit Court to-day against the distillers and rectifiers whose establishments were recently seized. It is understood both the rectifiers and distillers will be allowed to give bonds and proceed with business. These parties feel confident of gaining the cases against them, and if they do intend to bring a case for damages against Secretary Brewster and his securities.

A number of prominent citizens of many small towns in the country were in this city yesterday afternoon to witness the firemen's parade.

Our butchers have at their slaughter house yards south of the city a fine herd of cattle, which will be slaughtered

The sudden change from cold to humanity, and spring fevers prevail to a considerable extent.

A force of carpenters has been busily employed for some time past in shaping the wood work for the new living stable to be erected by the Laux

D. M. Barnett & Co. have a choice lot of peachbloom potatoes.
Green grocery men say they have frequent calls for strawberries every day, but the purchasers are very few.
This not every person who can afford to pay 50 cents a box for the delicious fruit.
Excursions are all the rage these days. No less than four are arranged for to different points, all of which take in Decatur, and are to come off within the next twenty days.
For books and periodicals go to J. J.
Davis & Co.'s.

Fishing is the most popular amusement, and J. Q. A. Odor is the best and most successful fisherman on the Sangam-

A match game of base ball is to be played to-morrow afternoon on King's common, between the Sentinels and Lightweights. The latter club was victorious in a game with the Stars last Monday.
"Duke," the firemen's boot-black, was the most enthusiastic looker-on of the hundreds who witnessed the firemen's parade and review yesterday.
On several occasions he was observed shouting, jumping and clapping his hands in high glee at the sights he saw.
Squire Hughes got a rest from civil cases yesterday, and employed his spare time in putting up a "bar" to keep back the crowd which throngs in his office whenever a police case of much importance is tried before him.

W. C. Armstrong's.
It is said that about twenty professional thieves and pickpockets follow in the wake of Yankee Robison's Show, some of whom staid behind in Decatur for a few days. It will be well for people to bar their doors and windows thoroughly while these light-fingered gentry remain among us.

Those nice rolls were baked at B.
P. Stephens', on South Main street.
Excursions are the order of the day.
Besides those which have already taken place this year are two to be run to Peoria, one by the Christian Church of Marion and one by the Universalist Sabbath School of this city. Also two to St. Louis, one by the M. E. Church of Ivesdale, and the other from Pekin. A successful excursion is generally found to be better paying than any grab-bag entertainment, festival or spelling school.

A LIVELY CASE IN THE POLICE COURT.
Yesterday afternoon, while the firemen's parade was in progress, officer Condon appeared in Justice Albert's office, bringing with him one James Coleman. A score of witnesses and spectators followed the officer and prisoner, eager to learn what punishment would be meted out to the latter for his outrageous conduct. Numerous were the witnesses who testified that they had seen the defendant cuff, kick, and beat Miss Coleman in a most unmerciful manner. Nelson admitted that he kicked the complaining witness, but stoutly maintained that he did so solely in self-defense, saying that she kicked him first.
This evidence was rather too thin, especially when the testimony of several witnesses flatly contradicted it.
When all the evidence was given in, the Justice at once decided that the defendant was guilty, and assessed a fine of $5 and costs—a total of $8. Nelson was penniless, and consequently this little fine answered the purpose intended, just as well as a heavy fine would, the only difference being that he will not board quite so long at the city's expense.

Ladies' Suits.—A large stock on hand and sold very cheap, at Goldburg's.
The Denver Rocky Mountain News, of a recent date comes to us with the following item:
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Grout, of Greeley, are at the Wentworth House. This is a comparatively new firm, the lady having been until recently, Miss Emma Low-ther, the champion type-setter of Colorado. As Mr. Grout is a prominent and highly respected business man, Miss Lowther's last "take" was a very good one.
Miss Lowther began her printorial career with the Maroa Tribune, and had been engaged at the Decatur Tribune office before leaving for Colorado with the family of Mrs. Bush, her sister. We take occasion to congratulate Mr. Grout upon his good fortune, and may the "new firm" live long and prosper—

Temperance Lecture.—On Monday evening next Dr. R. N. Davies, of Paris, will lecture on Temperance, at the court house. Dr. Davies is a profound thinker and an eloquent speaker, and as a con-troversialist, has probably no superior in the State. In procuring his services to lecture on Temperance, the friends of the cause have done a good thing for their side of the question, as it would be difficult for them to find a more able advocate and champion. Now, then, that they are to have a lecture from a man who is capable of doing honor to any cause he may espouse, we hope a special effort will be made to give him a fine hearing.

"Done Gone."—Among the enterprises that have been the subject of discussion, and are now lost to sight, is that of a street railway. Whether or not the thing is buried beyond the possibility of a resurrection remains to be seen. We presume somebody will start the discussion of the matter again in the course of a few months. We have no doubt that a street railway, judiciously operated, would be a paying institution in Decatur.

Personal.—We received a pleasant call to-day from Mr. G. E. Bursley, Secretary and Manager of the Fort Wayne Organ Company. This company manufactures the "Packard Orchestral Organ," for the sale of which Messrs. P. T.
Locke & Co. are the only authorized agents for this and adjacent counties.

Nobby.—Caldwell Bros. have purchased the fine set of double harness manufactured by J. G. Starr & Son, which took the premium at the fair last fall.
This set of harness is probably the finest ever made in Decatur, and we doubt if it has ever been excelled in the state.
Messrs. Caldwell Bros. can now turn out the "nobby" team in the country —new double seat phaeton, drawn by a pair of handsome black horses, capar-nisoned with the finest harness ever seen in this region.

FIREMEN'S PARADE AND REVIEW.
Procession—Inspection and Review by the City Council.
Bell by the Hook and Ladder Company.
As early as one o'clock in the afternoon of yesterday, men, women and children were seen wending their way from all parts of the city to the business part of town, so that by two o'clock the sidewalks in the vicinity of the Old Square were alive with humanity.
At about the last-named hour, the Young America Hook and Ladder Company, J. W. Ehrman, Foreman, accompanied by Rescue Hose Co. No. 1, W.
W. Foster, Foreman, headed by the Decatur Brass Band, Prof. Goodman, leader, left their headquarters on West Main street, and under the direction of Chief Engineer Earl P. Christie and Assistant P. B. Provost, proceeded to the corner of the streets near Stapp's Chapel, where they met Eldorado Hose Co. No. 2, T. L. Aulrim, Foreman, and formed in procession in the following order: Chief Engineer H. P. Christie and Assistant P. B. Provost.
Decatur Brass Band.
Eldorado Hose No. 2.
Young America Hook and Ladder.
Rescue Hose No. 1.
In this order the procession proceeded to the Old Square, where the companies formed in hollow square, with carriages and apparatus in the centre, for the purpose of inspection.
Rescue Hose then repaired to their headquarters for the purpose of taking their old hose cart to the square for inspection. They started for the point of destination upon a brisk run, and as they made a turn near the Priest House corner, the right hand-wheel of the hose cart broke down and brought the boys to a sudden halt. Nearly every spoke in the wheel was broken, and an examination disclosed the fact that the timber of which the broken wheel was made, was the poorest kind of material. The break-down caused a few moments delay, when the Chief Engineer, 2d Assistant, and several of the Aldermen, proceeded to inspect the apparatus. This done the members of the City Council present, newspaper reporters, and some others, repaired to the balcony of the St. Nicholas hotel, to witness the grand trial, as to which of the companies could throw water in the shortest time. The hose companies were to run separately over the same ground. The run of the Hook and Ladder Co. was from the corner of Prairie and Water streets to Central block, opposite the Priest house, throwing up a ladder and forming a bucket line, which was done in 38 seconds. The point from which the hose companies were to make their run, was the corner of Wood and South Main streets, attaching to the hydrant at the St. Nicholas hotel. The Eldorado Hose made the first run and threw water in 47 seconds. Rescue Hose made the second run and threw water in 39 seconds, time being kept by Alderman Peake.
The difference in the time on the run of the two hose companies is explained by professed judges by the fact of No. 2 using a two-wheel cart and No. 1 a four-wheel carriage. Gentlemen who were watching the race presented five to seven seconds difference on the run before it was made.

Suffice it to say, our citizens are satisfied with all the work done, and with companies who can run 100 yards, pay out 100 feet of hose, and put water through it in three quarters of a minute, or less time, they feel safe when they go to bed at night.
The Hook and Ladder Co. then made a second run, starting from the south end of Central block and coming around the north end in front of Priest's hotel, which they did in 33 seconds. The hose companies then threw four streams at once, which would have reached the roofs of the highest buildings in the city.
The next thing in order, was to pay out 1800 feet of hose, making the circuit of the block between Merchant and Water streets and Prairie and East Main, throwing a stream that would have reached the roofs of any buildings in the city. This closed the programme for the day, and after a little more skirmishing and exercising the companies repaired with their apparatus to their respective headquarters.

On their way to their hose house the Eldorado Hose Co. had the misfortune to break one of the wheels of their carriage, but notwithstanding the slight casualties named the day's doings passed off pleasantly.
In the evening took place the supplement to the parade and review, in the shape of a grand ball, at Brennenman's hall, by the Hook and Ladder Co., which was a success in every particular.
The attendance was unusually large for an occasion of the kind, and everybody seemed as happy as a "big sun-flower." As a source of revenue the ball met the most sanguine expectations of its projectors, and passed off in the most satisfactory manner.

On the whole this semi-annual review of our Fire Department fully equalled in interest any of its predecessors, and most favorably impressed our people as to its efficiency. Hundreds of our citizens were on the streets to witness the exercises from beginning to end.

BOUND FOR CHICAGO.
The Stapp's Chapel Excursion.
This morning opened lowering and threatening, but although seven o'clock brought with it a few scattering drops of rain the people who had made up their minds to go to Chicago were not to be scared by trifles, and the train, which left the Midland depot only a few minutes behind schedule time, was pre-tently well filled. As the Central depot more excursionists got on board, and when the train left the eight passenger coaches were all comfortably filled.
The band enlivened the occasion with the occasion with choice music; the youngsters and the oldsters too were as happy as birds, the ladies looked neat and bright in their pretty traveling dresses and spring hats, and all seemed to be in the proper frame of mind to enjoy the trip. The number on board the train when it left here must have been about 400. We learn that three more cars were to be added at Atlanta, in order to accommodate the passengers expected at that and other points between here and there.

Among the excursionists was Samuel Rea, Esq., who has not been to Chicago in forty years. He will probably not be able to recognize much of the Chicago of that day in the magnificent city that now sits upon the bank of Lake Michigan. Dr. McMillin also went with the party. He has not been to Chicago in twenty years—not since that red-headed boy came out to the Wabash country to be educated. Frank Scott of Mt. Zion township, was also among the excursionists, going to make his first visit to the great city.

Every Seven Years, physiologists say, the human body is entirely changed and renewed. Every moment of our lives, every part of our bodies is wearing out and being built up anew of fresh matter. This work is accomplished by the blood which goes through every part.
But if the blood becomes weak or vitiated, and does not perform its work properly, the system is actually poisoned by the worn out matter clogging the vital organs instead of leaving the body. For dyspepsia, biliousness, kidney, skin and liver troubles, fevers, and all diseases arising from vitiated blood, Dr. WALK-

THANKS FROM THE DEPTHS OF THE HEART.
WELLINGTON, Lorain Co., Ohio, August 24, 1874.
R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.
Dear Sir—Your medicines, Golden Medical Discovery, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, have proved to be the greatest service to me. Six months ago no one thought that I could possibly live long.
I had a complication of diseases, scrofula, manifesting itself in eruptions and great blotches on my head, that made such sores that I could not have my hair combed without causing me much suffering; also causing swollen glands, tonsils enlarged, enlarged or "thick neck," and large and numerous boils. I also suffered from a terrible chronic catarrh, and in fact I was so diseased that life was a burden to me. I had tried many doctors with no benefit. I finally procured one-half dozen bottles of your Golden Medical Discovery and one dozen Sage's Catarrh Remedy and commenced their use. At first I was badly discouraged, but after taking four bottles of the Discovery I began to improve, and when I had taken the remaining I was well. In addition to the use of Discovery I applied a solution of iodine to the goitre or thick neck, as you advise in pamphlet wrapping, and it entirely disappeared. Your Discovery is certainly the most wonderful blood medicine ever invented. I thank God and you for the cure of my heart, for the great good it has done me.
Very gratefully,
Mrs. L. CHAFFEE.

Most medicines which are advertised as blood purifiers and liver medicines contain either mercury, in some form, or potassium and iodine variously combined. All of these agents have strong tendency to break down the blood corpuscles, and debilitate and otherwise permanently injure the human system, and should therefore be discarded. Dr.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, on the other hand, being composed of the fluid extracts of native plants, barks and roots, will in no case produce injury, its effects being strengthening and cognitive only. Sarsaparilla, which used to enjoy quite a reputation as a blood purifier, is a remedy of thirty years age, and may well give place as it is doing, to the more positive and valuable vegetable alternatives which later medical investigation and discovery have brought to light. In Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammation, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin and Sore Eyes, as in all other blood diseases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has shown its great remedial powers, curing the most obstinate and intractable cases.— Sold by all dealers in medicines.
